Attention Farmers.

This is the season of the year when you have to lay in the FARMING UTENSILS for your farm, and you naturally want the BEST. We don't blame you for that, hence we have prepared for you wants. We have in stock a full and complete line of all kinds of PLOWS AND OTHER FARMING TOOLS for your use, and we will sell them to you as cheap as anybody.

We also handle the famous BROWN one and two horse wagons. They combine both quality and price. The cheapest wagon at the price you can get. We have other brands, and can suit you with anything you want in this line. We also carry a large and complete stock of buggies in all the leading brands. If you are in the market for a good buggy don't fail to give us a chance to figure with you.

We also carry a full stock of HARDWARE of all kinds. It is almost impossible to call for anything in this line that we haven't in stock. It is needless to say that we carry everything you need on the farm, and when you come to town come around to see us; you are always welcome.

Respectfully,

J. G. BLITCH CO.

SLATER.

Mrs. Susan Cone Slater was born Sept. 11, 1883. She was the widow of the late John G. Slater, Ivanhoe, Ga., and lived her long useful life in Bulloch Co., Ga. until she was stricken with paralysis in the summer of 1902, since then she has lived with her children, nine of whom survive her. She passed away at the home of her daughter Mrs. J. B. Wright, Cario, Ga., March 4, 1904. She joined Fellowship Baptist church at an early age, and was one of its most faithful members until the All Wise Father called her home. She was a staunch character. She always took a firm stand for the right and was not afraid to condemn the wrong. She loved her children and her Master and strove by her words and prayers to lead others to see how good God is. His works follow her.

"A Christian life that nobly lived Even in death hath much to give;
It points a path to peace and love Eternal rest in heaven above."

Resolved:
1. That the church and Missionary Society has lost one of its best members.

2. That the bereaved sons and daughters have our sincerest sympathy.

3. That a copy of the above be sent to the Christian Index, our country paper, also be recorded on our minutes.

WARNED.

All parties are hereby forewarned against hiring or sheltering the following negroes, who are under contract to work with me during this year, viz. Daniel Hardy or Ross, Farley Young and Elton Sapp. These negroes left my place on yesterday the 14th of April without cause and the law will be used to protect my rights in this matter.

FLY.

Easter has come and gone but everything seemed dull in this community.

We had a fine rain on last Friday and Saturday which was very much needed by the farmers.

Cultivators and candidates are all you can see in this section.

Buy Revere's high grade ready mixed paint from A. J. Franklin Letter to F. D. Seckinger.

Dear Sir: You are a teacher: here's one for your boys:
If painting cost two or three times as much as the paint, and one paint goes twice as far as another, how much are those two paints worth?

If Devoe is worth $1.50 or $1.75 a gallon, how much is the other one worth? How much is a gallon of paint worth anyhow?

The answer is: Depends on the paint. The reason is: paint isn't always paint.

There are true and false paints and short-measures.

How much is a short-measure gallon worth? How much is false paint worth? How much is Devoe worth? There are millions a year in the answer to the last one.

Yours truly,
F. W. Devoe & Co.
New York.

STRAYED.

About three weeks ago from my place about five miles south of Statesboro, one black cow and yearling, cow marked with upper square in each ear, crumpled horns with ends sawed off. Any information as to their whereabouts will be greatly appreciated.

FOR CLERK OF SUPERIOR COURT
D. Q. Stanford.

Let every man go to the polls on tomorrow and vote for the best man to fill the office to which he aspires.

Who is to be representative or tax receiver or any other local office seems to be of secondary importance to the congressional race now.

If the country counties can be bought and drenched now, it is probable that they can be done so in the years to come.

The Lester forces are driven to desperation when they go back 21 years to try to prove that Mr.
Brannen was in the liquor business. We are informed that their emissaries in some of the counties are selling the whiskey now which they are sending them to election with.

Russia's Ill Fortune.

If Fate owes Russia a grudge she seems to be paying it in a series of mishaps that have proven much more disastrous than the tons of shot and shell which have been hurled by the Mikado's fleets. One accident has followed another in such rapid succession as to confirm the saying that "misfortune never comes singly."

The unshaken religious zeal of the Russian accepts them all; however, as the chastening which the Lord inflicts upon those whom He loves. The reports of disaster hardly reaches St. Petersburg before the whole Empire is upon its knees uttering thanks because it is no worse. There is something admirable in all this, and it has a tendency to strengthen sympathy for the afflicted Russians in every part of the civilized world.

The latest disaster which has overtaken the Russians is the destruction of one of her most splendid battleships by a mine which was set for the Japanese. Seven or eight hundred sailors and the gallant Admiral—bravest of Russian Admirals—found a grave beneath the waters of that far eastern sea. The ground ship was on its way to give battle to the Japanese fleet when the accident occurred. Later dispatches tell of the Russian torpedo boat which met a similar fate, in a similar manner, a little later. Another battleship of the Russians was injured by a Russian mine, while still another was cut off by the Japanese fleet and sunk.

Happenings of this sort are enough to dishearten a people who trust so implicitly in Divine guidance, for they are apt to read in them Divine displeasure. But they will find satisfactory excuses for all of the disasters and the Russian government will continue to pour countless thousands of land forces into Korea to overwhelm the Japs when the struggle reaches the Korean hills—thus avenging the atrocities of the cruel ocean—Ex.

Somebody said a long time ago that Hearst would get Rhode Island, South Dakota and George Fred Williams. Well, he has taken all three tricks.—Ex.

John D. Rockefeller says it is a religious duty to get all the money you can and keep all you can.
According to that, the postoffice inspectors have been punishing men for performing their religious duty.—Washington Post.

Clito, Ga.

Lester's crowd have never denied that they are drenching the voters. They try to crawl out of the hole we have driven them in to by saying we are as mean as they are, but it ain't so, and they know that people don't believe it.

One thing is noticeable that there has not been a single instant of where whiskey has been used for campaign purposes in this county by one of the candidates for the local offices, they may be using it, but if they are they have not been charged with it.

The friends of Col. Brannen in Screven county have issued a warm extra edition of The Sylvania Telephone answering a lot of rot that the Savannah heeler have gotten out. Brannen will carry Screven along with the other country counties.

THE MEN WHO DIDN'T HELP.

What the Bryan Enterprise Says of the Meeting at Clyde

In an article in the Savannah Morning News of April 2, (presumably from Clyde) and signed William Wise (?) we must say he has not drawn very largely on his store of wisdom—though he has undoubtedly on his imagination —in his reply to the article in the Bryan Enterprise of a recent date signed J. D. W.

Mr. Wise (?) says: "It was known at Pembroke that the meeting was to come off at Clyde on the 28th at least eight days before his notice came out in the Enterprise." We can bear Mr.
Wise out in the truth of this that it was known only to Lester men, and just at this time there were at least ten legs of whiskey shipped to Lester supporters at this point along with a lot of literature from that mythical person calling himself Mayor Meyers, claiming Bryan, Bulloch, Emanuel, Liberty, Tattnall and in fact the whole district solid for Lester.

Mr. Wise (?) says: "It was known
least eight days before his notice came
out in the Enterprise." We can bear Mr.
person calling himself Mayor Meyers,
claiming Bryan, Bulloch, Emanuel,
district solid for Lester.

Oh yes, this meeting was known of before hand, it was set and latched in Chatham, and transferred to Bryan, accompanied by an old rooster or two to do the scorching.

Mr. Wise (?) also says that W. J. and W. H. Strickland canvassed the county for several days previous to the meeting in behalf of Mr. Brannen.
The writer has not been able to see Mr. W. H. Strickland since the 28, but is authorized to say for Mr. W. J.
Strickland that the assertion is utterly and unequivocally false in every particular.

It is true that he was at Clyde and had been there or near there since the day previous visiting an old sick sister. He took no part in the meeting whatever, not being a citizen of Bryan, and while he is an ardent supporter of Col. Brannen he has never "bushwhacked" in Bryan or any other county in the interest of any one.
Mr. Wise (?) statement to the contrary notwithstanding.

Mr. Wise (?) continues: "Didn't they carry Mr. Brannen himself there and J. D. W. and M. E. C. and the rest of the crowd from Pembroke?" Surely not the Messrs. Stricklands, for they were both down there at that section; yet he has the cheek to assert that these gentlemen, after "bush-whacking" the county for Brannen, got together this great crowd and drilled them down to Clyde for the purpose stated above.

Now let's see how near Mr. Wise (?) came to hitting the truth. Mr. Bran-nen came to Clyde with a gentleman, who we are not mistaken, and we don't think we are, up to the time Mr. Brannen was rather disposed to support Col. Lester, but after having witnessed such disgraceful scenes as were enacted on the occasion, has since become a firm and strong Brannen supporter.

Mr. E. C. was there and Mr. Wise (?) has either over looked the fact that M.
E. C. had a business appointment there that day, or he has wilfully tried to create a wrong impression as to the reason of M. E. C.'s being there.

M. E. C. is too well known in Bryan as a gentleman, far above such low and despicable political practices as are insinnuated at in this article. He was present when by force of numbers, and regardless of parliamentary rules and practices, the Lester faction, backed by advice and spurings from sleek tongued heeler from Bulloch and Chatham, attempted to capture the meeting and endorse Col. Lester; he entered his protest against such, as did the rest of Mr. Brannen's friends on the occasion, and for which we are all proud of.

J. D. W. was there, and by the way, he went with one of the strongest Lester supporters in the section. There were probably four or five more Brannen supporters from Pembroke, but as Mr. Wise (?) does not see fit to person-ate them, we will not. Yet this great Munchausen has the gall to say that the Brannen men planned, prepared and went down to Clyde for the purpose of "boosting Mr. Brannen's interest."

Now I would like to ask Mr. Wise (?) if the writer of the article referred to a few questions:

Is it not a fact that the county was scoured from one end to the other, and every Lester man available brought there that day? Is it not a fact that a free dinner was given to all Lester men at the Duke House, the cost of same to be footed by Lester money?

Is it not a fact that there were several Lester heeler from other counties on hand to tie the chair? Is it not a fact that whiskey was as free as water, and that drunkenness and rowdy-ism was the rule rather than the exception?

Does all this look like a "just happened so" affair on the part of the Lester faction, and can you make the fact—even by drawing on your most fertile imagination—bear you out in the assertion that this meeting was called for the purpose of "boosting Brannen?"

You know full well that such was not the case and you will have a hard time trying to make an intelligent, fair minded citizen believe it.

Mr. Wise (?) is way out again in regards to the resolution by Mr. Smith and the suggestion offered by Mr.
Dugan.

Mr. Smith, as has been stated before, did offer a number of names to be voted on as members of the executive committee, but it was not such a palpable case of wilful discrimination in favor of the Lester faction, (not a Brannen supporter being on the list) that it at once met with a most firm and vigorous protest on the part of Mr. Brannen's friends present. It was then that Mr. Dugan offered the suggestion that each district appoint its own committee, and not as Mr. Wise (?) has stated: that the committee be appointed by the chairman. This was immediately squelched by the other side, and the statement made by Mr.
Wise (?) that the Brannen faction were in any way responsible for the drunken and riotous ending of what should have been a meeting to harmonize the white vote of the county and prepare for a more concentrated and intelligent action in the future is either a gross misrepresentation or at the least, a gross misrepresentation of facts in the case and calculated to place some at least of Bryan county citizens in the wrong light.

We do not propose to be "led like sheep to the slaughter" any longer and have our politics and action dictated by a few professional county politicians and city heeler.

We are in a position now, by a concentrated action and effort, to begin a great reform along this line by voting and intelligent action in the future is
citizens in the wrong light.

The sick politicians would make it appear that Col. Lester's defeat in the coming election would mean disgrace for him, and are appealing to their sympathies and loyalty on this score and are playing on the emotions of his friends for support in order to work out their own plan and continuing their policy for self aggrandizement.

There are many good and true men supporting Col. Lester from conscientious principles and the writer honors and respects them for so doing; there are others who have been led away by false impressions and mistaken ideas these we are sorry for and hope they will see their error of their ways and repent, and there are still others who see in this campaign a chance to boost self, help along false legislation, contaminate our politics with whiskey and rotten methods and run the county to suit themselves; these we have the most utmost contempt for and by "ericky" will be found fighting them to the last ditch.

SOFT CORE

Like the running brook, the red blood that flows through the veins has to come from somewhere.

The springs of red blood are found in the soft core of the bones called the marrow and some say red blood also comes from the spleen. Healthy bone marrow and healthy spleen are full of fat.

Scott's Emulsion makes new blood by feeding the bone marrow and the spleen with the richest of all fats, the pure cod liver oil.

For pale school girls and invalids and for all whose blood is thin and pale, Scott's Emulsion is a pleasant and rich blood food. It not only feeds the blood-making organs but gives them strength to do their proper work.
